Major General W. E. Todd
Deputy Director
Joint Intelligence Group
The Joint Staff
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear General Todd:

It was a great pleasure to me to receive your letter of 29 September with your personal commendation for Doctors Montague, Macle, and [redacted] for their work with you in representing CIA.

STAT

Our problems of coordination and cooperation are often somewhat difficult, and it is reassuring to find our people are working well together.

Again let me express my personal wish for your continued success in your new assignment.

Sincerely yours,
